VARIED EXPERIENCE The store owner has had aried business experience. Before the war he ran a freight line between Elba and Montgonery from 1937 to 1941. Mr English then worked for a local nardware store until 1943 when e went into the merchant ma-. Getting out of the mer ant marine in 1945, the store wner secured his Western Auto franchise in Elba. But since it was impossible to secure merchandise, he travelled for nine nonths and then bought the old B & E store in Opp. He converted it to the Economy Auto store and managed it until coming to Elba in July of 1947. SERVICE THEIR SALES

Mr. English attributes many of his sales to the fact that the store services any item purchas ed there. Whether it is an electric iron, radio, power lawn mower or home appliance, his staff make sure it is in satisfactory operating condition, he states. This attracts new cus the community, Mr. English

His return was welcomed by Edd Hatcher and Cleo Hawkins whohad been working 12 hour shifts in Mr. Morgan's absence.

FORTNER HOSPITALIZED

Mrs. W. B. Morgan went to Veteran's Hospital in Montgomery friday to bring her husband home. He had been receiving treatment for ten days. His mercury to drop to a cool 30.

The rain was the first appreciable moisture this area had had in nearly two weeks. Crops and all kinds of vegetation were suffering. The rain covered a wide area but was light in some spots over the county. Cotton which is beginning to open will be helped and some corn will profit. Pasures and lawns were greatly benefited.
